SHERIFF EDWARD N. BONNER RELEASES THE FOLLOWING:

Placer County Sheriff's detectives are looking for three suspects who were involved in a robbery in rural Lincoln this morning.

The incident began around 11:30 this morning, when a resident was working in the front yard of his home in the 2500 block of Virginiatown Road, in the unincorporated area of Lincoln. Two vehicles pulled up in his driveway, with two men and one woman inside. One man approached the 42-year-old victim and confronted him, asking for money. The two men fought and the suspect was able to grab cash that was on a table in front of the house.

The two white male suspects are both described as 6-feet, 1-inch tall, one weighing 170-180 pounds, and the other weighing about 250 pounds. One man has short black hair and possibly a moustache and was wearing blue jeans, a short-sleeved checkered shirt and white tennis shoes. The white female suspect has blond hair, but no other description was given.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Placer County Sheriff's Dept. at (530) 889-7800.
